

Outline of the Introduction for the Communication Training Plan

1. Purpose of the Training

Communication Training Plan

1. Introduction

Effective communication is essential for workplace success, improving collaboration, reducing misunderstandings, and enhancing productivity. This training program focuses on developing verbal, non-verbal, and written communication skills.

2. Training Objectives

- Improve interpersonal communication skills.
- Enhance active listening and feedback techniques.
- Develop professional email and report writing skills.
- Strengthen public speaking and presentation abilities.
- Foster effective teamwork and conflict resolution.

3. Training Modules

A. Fundamentals of Communication

- Importance of communication in the workplace.
- Verbal vs. non-verbal communication.
- Barriers to effective communication.
- Developing clarity and confidence in speech.

B. Active Listening & Feedback

- Techniques for active listening.
- Importance of empathy in communication.
- Providing and receiving constructive feedback.
- Avoiding miscommunication in professional settings.

C. Business & Professional Communication

- Email and report writing best practices.
- Formal vs. informal communication.
- Communicating with different stakeholders.
- Cross-cultural communication in global teams.

D. Public Speaking & Presentation Skills

- Overcoming stage fright and nervousness.
- Structuring a clear and engaging presentation.

- Using visual aids effectively (PowerPoint, charts, etc.).
- Handling Q&A sessions confidently.

E. Team Communication & Conflict Resolution

- Communicating effectively in team settings.
- Strategies for resolving conflicts professionally.
- Negotiation and persuasion skills.
- Building a culture of open communication.

4. Training Schedule

Module	Target Employees	Duration	Frequency
Fundamentals of Communication	All Employees	2 hours	Annually
Active Listening & Feedback	Managers & Teams	2 hours	Bi-Annually
Business & Professional Communication	Office Staff & Executives	3 hours	Annually
Public Speaking & Presentation Skills	Managers & Leaders	4 hours	Annually
Team Communication & Conflict Resolution	Team Leads & HR	3 hours	Bi-Annually

5. Training Methods

- Interactive workshops and role-playing exercises.
- Case studies and real-world scenarios.
- Group discussions and team activities.
- Video-based learning and expert-led webinars.
- One-on-one coaching for targeted improvement.

6. Evaluation & Certification

- Pre- and post-training assessments.
- Feedback surveys from participants.
- Practical assessments (presentations, writing exercises).
- Issuance of training completion certificates.
- Follow-up sessions for continuous improvement.